

The Possibility of Life Elsewhere in the Universe

Public Lecture by Dr. Christopher F. Chyba

Professor of astrophysical sciences and international affairs,
Princeton University

Formerly of the SETI Institute, winner of a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship
("genius award"), and former member of the National Security Council staff

FREE

Wednesday, February 20, 2008, 7:30 p.m.

Welch Hall, Room 2.224
University of Texas at Austin
Free parking at San Jacinto and Speedway campus garages.

Weather permitting, the lecture will be followed by a public viewing of the evening's total lunar eclipse on the 17th floor of Robert Lee Moore Hall.
Totality begins at 9 p.m. and runs until about 10 p.m.

<http://www.as.utexas.edu/chyba/>

Organized by the Space Studies Board of the National Academies and The University of Texas at Austin Astronomy Program.
Celebrating the 50th anniversary of the International Geophysical Year and the birth of space science.