1. Why is the orange absorption line of sodium seen in cool stars, but not in hot stars?

2. In a hydrogen bomb 100 grams of hydrogen was converted by nuclear fusion into 99.3 grams of helium. How could you use these numbers to calculate how much energy was generated by nuclear fusion in this bomb?